ORDER NOTING THAT THE COURT
WILL NOT RETAIN CONTINUING
JURISDICTION OVER THE PARTIES'
SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND
DIRECTING CLERK TO SET CASE
MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

12 Re: ECF No. 54

The parties have filed a stipulation of dismissal in this case. ECF No. 54. When all parties who have appeared in an action sign a stipulation of dismissal, such dismissal is ordinarily effective without court order pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii). However, because the parties' agreement to dismiss this case is contingent upon the Court exercising continuing jurisdiction to enforce the parties' settlement agreement, and the Court will not do so, the request to dismiss is DENIED.

At any time, the parties may file a stipulation of dismissal that is not contingent on any action of the Court. In the meantime, the Court hereby directs the Clerk of Court to schedule a case management conference in this case at the earliest possible opportunity. At the conference, the Court will set a trial date and other appropriate deadlines. All parties or their counsel are
